

Italian Trans Geographies: Retracing Trans/Cultural Narratives of People and Places

Tuesday, February 28, 2023, 4-5pm | 120 Williams Hall

You are invited to join a talk by Dr. Danila Cannamela from Colby College. Dr. Cannamela has published a book on Italian Crepuscular poetry, The Quiet Avant-Garde: Crepuscular Poetry and the Twilight of Modern Humanism (University of Toronto Press, 2019), and is now undertaking novel work in cultural studies related to gender and sexuality, geography, and gastronomy. She will discuss her current project, an edited volume on "Italian Trans Geographies."

Dr. Danila Cannamela
Assistant Professor of Italian
Colby College

This event is sponsored and hosted by the Department of Modern Languages and Classics with support from the Department of English, Women's, Gender, & Sexuality Studies, the McGillicuddy Humanities Center, and the College of Liberal Arts & Sciences.
